The Paper Birds

Direct Address

- Rules:
    - Group of 5 line up across back of stage
    - Nominate one person to begin. They are going to read from their text, whilst trying to engage and directly address the audience. They take one step forward when they begin.
    - At any point, any of the other members can step forward and interrupt.
    - If they do interrupt, they take the focus and carry on speaking.
    - The person who has been interrupted, stops speaking but DOES NOT step back.
    - Slowly and gradually as each member steps forward and speaks, the whole ensemble begin to make their way further and further down the stage.
    - Encourage group to listen to each other, work as a team, and build a sound collage of all the different voices.
