The Paper Birds

Recreate the Image

- Using a found image, working in a group, try to recreate the image on the stage.
- You can only use movement, gesture and physicality to build the image on stage – you can't use any props or set or objects.
- Each member of the group can move independently or together.
- Let the image itself influence the moves – are you representing something soft or sharp? Will you move fast or slow?