The Paper Birds

Arranging Found Text

- Using a piece of found text, divide up bits to be delivered by different members of the group.
- Arrange the text so that each person has something to say.
- You can rearrange the order – you can use text from the last paragraph first, and move sentences from the beginning to the end etc.
- Use layering, unison, and repetition.
- Polish up the script and layer over a piece of movement.